PRESS RELEASE

NB Fencer Wendy Yano to compete at World Cup in Turkey

Wendy Yano, a Fredericton sabre fencer will be competing for Canada at a Senior World Cup competition in Antalya, Turkey this coming weekend. Wendy, a member of the National Women's Sabre Team, has represented New Brunswick at several national events to qualify for this chance to represent Canada. She has been training intensely with NB provincial fencing coach, Xavier Boulet in preparation for this major event on the international calendar.

To find out more about this event, you can visit the international FIE website (www.fie.ch) to watch for results, or follow the Turkish Fencing Federation for updates (<http://www.eskrim.org.tr>)

The major events for team selection for the 2013-2014 season are the Senior Pan-American Championships in San Juan, Puerto Rico in June, the Senior World Championships in Sofia, Bulgaria in July and the Commonwealth Championships in Scotland in November.
